Call for contribution of expertise

CERN invites collaborating institutes and universities to contribute with the expertise of their qualified employees to the activity described below.

Start date: asap	Duration: One year, possible extension to a maximum of up to 3 years.

Project/Activity: Planning and resources tracking

Detailed description of Activity:

The expert will join the TE-VSC group. the work will focus on the preparation of planning and tracking of resources via EVM (Earned Value Management) and other CERN applications The main tasks will be the following:

- Understand and analyse the different vacuum activities and evaluate the risks;
- Redaction of technical documents describing the TE-VSC group contribution to the other workpackages, including both technical activities and resources;
- Track milestones and deliverables via dedicated schedule;
- Track expenditure both for hardware and manpower
- Compare the expenditure with the allocated budget and propose actions whenever required.

Profile: Bachelor degree in industrial and/or production engineering

Specific details: Candidates will be expected to possess a good working knowledge of either English or French. Documentation shall be produced in English.

Status at CERN: Associated Member of the Personnel (Project Associate).

Conditions in accordance with CERN's Staff Rules and Regulations and Administrative Circular No. 11. Subsistence allowance is payable by CERN to cover the additional cost arising from the individual's (and, as applicable, their family's) stay in the local area while performing activities at CERN.

Option: Collaborating institutes and universities can propose to support the activity of the qualified employees participating in this "Call for contribution of expertise" with students or other employees. Their status and Subsistence allowance when applicable will be adapted to their relation with their institutions

Contact person: Isabel Bejar Alonso	Reference: 2019_Q2_017